go2HR Welcomes Interim Health and Safety Program Manager

December 17, 2015, Vancouver, BC – go2HR, BC's tourism industry human resource association, is pleased to announce the appointment of Kori Gryschuk to the position of Program Manager, Industry Health and Safety. Kori will be taking over the operational duties for the Industry Health and Safety program from Trina Pollard, who is on maternity leave until 2017.

Kori will be responsible for increasing industry engagement in health and safety, and the Certificate of Recognition (COR) program, a nationally recognized audit, certification and incentive program, rewarding employers that go beyond the legal requirements of the Workers Compensation Act and Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Regulation. As part of her responsibilities, Kori will coordinate and plan OHS events and services throughout the province.

For more than ten years, Kori has been a health and safety professional at various sized companies across multiple industries. Kori's extensive knowledge in health and safety is demonstrated through her experience as a health and safety coordinator at several manufacturing companies, and a health and safety advisor at an environmental and engineering consulting firm. Kori holds an Occupational Health and Safety Certificate from BCIT, and a Provincial Instructor Diploma from Vancouver Community College. She is a Certified Health and Safety Consultant, and a Canadian Registered Safety Professional.
