

For Immediate Release

October 22, 2020

go2HR Appoints New Health and Safety Manager

Vancouver – go2HR – BC’s tourism industry human resource and health and safety association – is pleased to announce the promotion of Stephanie Mallalieu to Manager, Industry Health and Safety.

In her new role, Stephanie Mallalieu will directly oversee the Certificate of Recognition (COR) program, and continue to engage with tourism and hospitality employers to ensure go2HR’s health and safety initiatives meet the industry’s evolving needs.

Stephanie joined go2HR in 2016 and has more than 20 years of food hygiene and health and safety experience within travel, tourism and hospitality. Stephanie has held senior positions in London, England, and various overseas locations, supporting businesses with their food hygiene and health and safety programs. Stephanie holds a M.Sc. in Food Safety Management from the University of Central Lancashire, a B.A. in Tourism and Business Management from the University of Birmingham and a General Certificate from The National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health, England. Stephanie is a Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP).

“We are delighted to promote Stephanie to the new role,” says Arun Subramanian, Director, Industry Health and Safety at go2HR. “She has been a valuable member of the go2HR team and we look forward to her continuing contributions to the health and safety program and the organization.”

About go2HR

go2HR is BC’s tourism and hospitality human resource and health & safety association. As labour market specialists, go2HR provides programs, resources, support in the area of human resources, health and safety, and training. To learn more, visit go2HR.ca.